Name Maintenance for Electric Account(s)/Capital Credits

Under the Financial Modernization Act of 2000, the sharing of consumer personal information is regulated as to who can obtain financial products or services from financial institutions, such as credit companies, mortgage lenders, etc. Although People's Energy Cooperative (PEC) obtains information about individual members as part of providing our products and services, PEC will never utilize data obtained from an individual member without the permission of the member. PEC will not reveal specific information about member accounts or other personally identifiable data to unaffiliated third parties for their independent use except as follows:

1. When the information is required to complete a transaction initiated by the member;
2. When the member requests it;
3. When disclosure is required by law (e.g. subpoena, investigation of fraud, etc.).

Due to the Financial Modernization Act of 2000, PEC is only able to share account information with authorized individuals listed on the account. To convert an account from a single to a married/joint account, and vice versa, the bottom half of this document must be completed.

When a membership is changed from either single or joint, the capital credits previously earned shall remain under the current member number. Upon the death of one of the individuals in a joint membership, the capital credits shall solely belong to the survivor listed on the account. *
